The University of Scranton
Student Conduct Process
2014-2015

Incident

No Violation of the Student Code of Conduct

Report Submitted to The Office of Student Conduct & Investigation Occurs (If Needed)

Possible Violation of the Student Code of Conduct

Educational Conference
Informal Hearing with Conduct Officer

Student Charged with Code Violation(s) and Does Not Accept Responsibility and/or Sanctions; Proceed to Formal Hearing

Student Charged with Code Violation(s), Accepts Responsibility & Sanctions Assigned (Process Ends)

Student Found Not Responsible for Code Violation(s) (Process Ends)

Deferred Suspension (formerly “Behavioral Contract”) Review (Process Ends)

Administrative Hearing
Occurs when a finding of responsibility would result in a sanction less than Suspension

University Review Board (URB) Hearing
Occurs when a finding of responsibility would likely result in a sanction of Suspension or Expulsion

Finding of Responsibility; Sanctions Assigned (Process Ends)

No Finding of Responsibility (Process Ends)

Finding of Responsibility; Sanctions Assigned; Appeals Possible (If No Appeals, Process Ends)

No Finding of Responsibility; Appeals Possible (If No Appeals, Process Ends)

Appellate Review

Appellate Board Affirms URB Decision (Process Ends)

Appeal Granted for Procedural Error; Send case to new or original URB

Appeal Granted for New Evidence; Send case to original URB

New or Original URB Hears Case; Responsibility Determined & Process Ends

Original URB Hears New Evidence; Responsibility Determined & Process Ends